PRESS TELEGRAMS.

Madrid, 18th.—According to the official bulletin there were 1554 fatal cases of cholera yesterday throughout Spain.

Marseilles, 17th—Since Friday there have been 109 fatal cases of cholera in the city.

New York, 17th—Over 40,000 persons visited General Grant's tomb yesterday.

St. Petersburg, 17th—A portion of the fleet will henceforward pass the winter off the coast of Finland, owing to the Bay of Cronstadt being frozen up during the greater part of the year.

Paris, 17th—Cholera has followed the emigrants from Marseilles, and is spreading at Sisteron and other towns in the French Alpine provinces.

The Minister of the Interior stated in his speech, on the occasion of the unveiling of General Chanzy's statue, that the events of 1870 had taught a double lesson to the French: the necessity of being perpetually prepared for war, and the necessity of maintaining the country on the same footing as the other powers.

London, 17th—It is stated that Italy is about to send 20,000 men to the Soudan for the purpose of occupying the coast of the Red Sea, from Souakim to the Bay of Assaba. Even if the British Envoy at Constantinople do not come to an agreement with the Sultan, England will give Italy full power to carry out this project.

It is rumoured that Lord Salisbury will hold an interview with the Italian Ambassador.

Rosario, 19th.—Several 'jovenes conocidos' arrived to-day from Cordoba, to receive Senator Moyano who is expected to arrive here to-morrow from B. Aires.

In spite of the severe weather experienced of late and the wretched condition of the camps, wheat and flax in the north are most flourishing.

The Jefe de Policia has returned from Santa Fé.

Owing to some difficulties respecting the nomination of a president, the Irigoyenista Committee remains unorganized.

The police have discovered, or at least announce they have, a case of forgery on a large scale. No details yet.

The weather is very unsettled, and it is probable we shall have rain shortly.

Advices from Rio Cuarto state that Olmos will not accept the Governorship of Cordoba.

Santa Fé, 19th. A Rochista Committee will be organised here on the 25th inst.

Difficulties are daily arising with regard to the Governorship of the Province. It is stated that Dr. Pizarro is endeavouring to obtain the influence of the President.

Montevideo, 19th—It is stated that the Umberto was not detained the usual space of time in quarantine, in consequence of a telegram from the Oriental Consul in Genoa contradicting the statements made by the Argentine Minister, Dr del Viso. Nevertheless a formal protest has been made by the French Agent for the Mensagerias Maritimas, and the affair promises to be 'ruidosa.'

A commercial house in this market has received a telegram from Barcelona stating that there has not been a single case of cholera in that city.

Estancieros have written to say they will be happy to attend the rural exhibition which is to take place at Maronas towards the end of next December.

THE BOULEVARD.

Step by step the Lord Mayor advances with his Boulevard scheme. We last advised our readers of the financial combination made, by which the Boulevard would be constructed without raising a loan or costing the city or the citizens one dollar. We now give our readers the new 'reglamento,' which is drawn up by the Lord Mayor, and submitted to the Board for approval. This 'reglamento' is to methodize the business of expropriation which, we suppose, will begin as soon as the bonds are lithographed. In the mean time, and while they are finishing the bonds, we may again call Mr Alvear's attention to the scandalous Municipal abuse at the San Roque Hospital, where the refuse water of the establishment flows into the streets, causing the most dangerous 'lagunas', in Calle Belgrano, of waste, impure and rotten water. This is a nuisance without parallel in a city such as this, and we had better abandon all idea of this grand Boulevard, if we cannot afford proper drainage for the largest Municipal Hospital in town.

The following is the Boulevard 'reglamento':—

Art. 1st—The Municipality shall proceed in accordance with the law of Oct. 31, 1884 and with the stipulations of the present decree.

Art. 2nd—The Municipality shall expropriate the properties outside the line adopted for the streets referred to in Art 1 of the law, when the proprietors decline to rebuild the fronts of their houses on the corresponding line, gratis or by means of a moderate remuneration.

Art. 3rd—The preceding article shall be likewise enforced for the expropriations necessary for the enlargement or opening of the streets referred to in Art 2 of the law.

Art. 4th—The Municipality shall avail itself of the authorization of Oct. 4 of the law to open the 'avenue, between the Plaza de Mayo and Calle Entre Rios, the works to be commenced in the 'manzanas' where the least resistance will be opposed to the arrangements to be made with the proprietors.

Art. 5th—To cover the expenses entailed in the carrying out of this project the Municipality shall make use of its credit to the extent of one million National dollars. The proceeds of the sales by auction of the expropriated properties shall be applied to the same end, exception being made of that part of the properties required by the Municipality for the opening etc. of streets.

Art. 6th—The buildings on the streets shall not be commenced without the previous approval by the Municipal Bureau of Public Works, of the plans drawn up to this effect. These buildings shall be of the same height and the same architectural style.

Art. 7th—At each session of the Concejo Deliberante the Lord Mayor shall account for the use made of these authorizations.

Art. 8th—Let this be published etc.

Alvear.
Mariano Obarrio.

ARTICLES OF THE EXPROPRIATION LAW

Art. 4th—Authorization is hereby given to open a street of 30 metres in width at least, running from the Plaza Mayo bisecting the properties included between Calles Rivadavia and Victoria, and terminating at Calle Entre Rios.

Art. 5th—Authorization is hereby given to expropriate properties bordering on the streets referred to in the preceding article.

THE SCAB LAW.

IMPORTANT MEETING

To-night a meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the rooms of the Rural Society, Calle Peru No. 35, at which all the estancieros and sheepfarmers should attend.

The object of the meeting is to present a petition numerously and influentially signed to the Provincial Government, praying of the Governor to use all his influence to have the Scab Law, so long before the Chambers, at once passed.

Mr. Nicholas Lowe, who is always foremost in every useful or progressive measure for camp interests, has been toiling at this subject for the last 6 months, calling upon all the principal and influential estancieros, and urging their support to this most essential measure. We are happy to say that he has not worked in vain; Mr. Sunblad, the President of the Rural Society, has promised him his fullest co-operation, as also the other prominent members of the Rural Society, and the meeting is now convened to give proper shape to the movement which enlists our fullest sympathy and support. Admission to the meeting is free, and we are requested to invite all who are interested in the subject to attend. The following is a rough draft of the petition that will be laid before the meeting to-night. If it has one signature, it should have fifty thousand.

PETITION.

We the undersigned estancieros and flock-owners of the Province of Buenos Ayres, deeply interested in the extinction of a disease known as scab, do humbly pray that the Provintial Government will take into account the great loss sustained annually by the country at large from the ravages of the scab upon the great numbers of sheep in the province of Buenos Ayres.

The exportation of wool being the greatest resource of revenue of this country it necessarily requires all the fostering care the Government can bestow upon it, which it has never had up to this point and which has hitherto been overlooked.

To compete with other sheep countries it is absolutely necessary for us to be upon the same basis, and we humbly petition you to pass the scab law such as is pending before the chambers without delay, and thus rid us of the scab so that we may enjoy the advantages of Australia, New Zealand, and the United States, and thus be able to meet them on equal grounds.

CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY

STORMY MEETING.

We give the following abstract of the meeting of shareholders held last month in London, which will probably be read with interest here, owing to the flare-up about the conflicting interests of the Central and Rosario Sunchales Railway. Mr. Krell, who is well known to us all, appeared to feel sore that the Central Railway did not get the extension to Sunchales, but we certainly must say that we think no one but the Directors themselves of the Central Railway are to blame. Ten years age they should have made this extension. They, however, slept so long that the country grewup around them faster than they imagined. The Buenos Ayres and Rosario has now got this valuable extension, and all the necessary capital for its construction was subscribed in fifteen minutes in the London market What the Central Argentine Directors ought to do is, to watch well the law now before Congress for the sale of the Tucuman Railway, and when passed by all means purchase it from the Government:—

Mr. W. Morrison seconded the resolution.

Mr. Krell said he looked upon the report as a wonderfully good one; but he had his doubts whether the prosperity enjoyed by the company would continue, because of the probable competition of the Buenos Ayres and Pacific and the Buenos Ayres and Rosario railways. The Central Argentine had carried all the materials for the Andine line; but a guarantee had been given by the Government for the Buenos Ayres and Pacific line, and there could be little doubt that in future all the traffic from Mendoza, instead of going along the Central Argentine line, by way of the Andine Railway from Villa Mercedes to Villa Maria, would be sent along the Buenos Ayres and Pacific to the port of Buenos Ayres. Then, again, there was the extension of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway from Rosario to Sanchales, with its 5ft. 6in. gauge. The probability was that that line would some day be extended onwards to Tucuman. The concession for that railway was originally offered to this company; but there was considerable delay in coming to a decision on the matter, and the result was that Mr. Shaw, a director in this company, went out to the Republic, undoubtedly said this company would not carry out the extension, and got the concession for the line in his own name.

Mr. R. Shaw—That is untrue.

The Chairman—Mr. Shaw was in this country at the time.

Mr. Krell—Well, all the better. It makes no difference to the case. ("Oh, oh!" and laughter.) When the news arrived every one felt that this company had been slighted, that Messrs. Parish and Shaw had stabbed the company in the back, and that they ought to resign their seats at the board of the Central Argentine. They did not resign however, and he had since felt that they were not friends to this company, which had enemies in its camp. ("Oh, oh.")

Mr. Van Tromp said the only satisfaction he felt in listening to the observations of the last speaker was, that nobody appeared to understand what he was saying. When he heard Mr. Shaw say that the accusation against him was untrue, he paid no further attention to the remainder of Mr. Krell's speech. As an original shareholder in the company he felt highly gratified with the report which had been presented, for he had always believed in the business capacity of the board, and the results now exhibited proved that his confidence had not been misplaced. ("Hear, hear.") He believed the company would continue to receive good dividends notwithstanding the gloomy predictions of Mr. Krell. ("Hear, hear.")

Mr. Lyall observed that the chairman had said the traffic for the first six months of the current year was more than equal to that of the corresponding period of last year. It would be, therefore, interesting to know whether a large portion of the traffic had not been derived from them carriage of Government material. As the general manager had spoken in his report of sidings at Rosario station which would represent the commencement of the double track from Rosario out, he desired to know whether the company's road and bridges were wide enough without alterations to admit of a double line traffic. As to the story about Messrs. Parish and Shaw, he had never heard of it before, but it certainly appeared to him that the Santa Fé and Rosario extension would eventually become a competitor to this company's line.

Mr. Parish—Possibly in the next generation, or two or three generations hence. It is in the clouds, and does not enter into the practical ideas of anybody

Mr. Lyall, continuing, said that as Messrs. Parish and Shaw were gentlemen of influence in the City, he thought their attention should be devoted solely to this company, and not partly given to the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Company, which was likely to become a competitor.

In reply to a shareholder.

Mr. Shaw said he never obtained the concession for the Buenos Ayres and Rosario scheme, either in his own name or for any one else. ("Hear, hear.")

Mr. Saunders thought the affairs of the company had been so well managed by the present board in the past that the shareholders might well continue their confidence in the future. ("Hear, hear.") In his opinion the directors were to be commended for not accepting concessions for other schemes.

Mr. Batten, as one deeply interested in the Argentine Republic, said he should be sorry for the shareholders to go away with the pessimist views entertained by Mr. Krell. The chairman had prophesied that a dividend of 10 per cent. would be continued next year, but whatever competition might arise the line could not fail to realise the statutory 12 per cent., for the outgoings would not reach more than 235,000*l.*, whereas the net income for the present year had amounted to 325,000*l* It would be impossible for the company, unless they were visited by a great calamity, to resist the progress of the Argentine Republic, and realise from their traffic a less dividend than 12 per cent. With regard to the predicted competition from the Buenos Ayres and Rosario line, he considered it was the duty of this company to provide an unbroken gauge from Tucuman to Rosario and thus to Buenos Ayres. This could be carried out in two ways. For example, the Great Western Railway in this country, being anxious to retain the Cornwall and Devonshire traffic, had laid down a third rail from London to Exeter, and they were going to extend that third rail from Exeter to Falmouth. By laying down a third rail out of surplus income this company could bring down the traffic from Tucuman to Rosario, and could then either ship it at Rosario or continue carrying it by rail to Buenos Ayres without changing. It should be remembered that the Argentine Republic was of very extensive area, and that the several existing railways were long distances apart, consequently there was little fear of competition. At any rate, until the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway got much nearer to the company's line there was little to be feared from it. Having seen the country and its vast development, he could only advise the company to supply their manager with as many wagons and engines as he required, and he had little doubt the result would be that instead of having a profit of 325,000*l.* they would realise a profit of more than 625,000*l.*, and with the surplus remaining after paying 12 per cent. would be able to establish their undertaking on a wide and solid basis. ("Hear, hear.")

Mr. F. Parish thought it only right that he should answer the assertions made by Mr. Krell, whose remarks appeared to have been prompted by some disappointment not known to the shareholders. Mr. Krell knew the Argentine Republic well, and possessed an estate near the company's railway, therefore he must have derived considerable benefit from the line. The report and accounts were so satisfactory that he had expected a sort of harmonious jubilee at the present meeting. ("Hear, hear," and laughter.) As to the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway, it had been absolutely necessary for either the Central Argentine or the New Company to take possession of that line, otherwise competitors would have come in. Under the existing state of affairs there was not the slightest intention of extending the Rosario line to Tucuman. An extension was being made to the colonies of Santa Fé so as to get a better port at Rosario or Buenos Ayres, and a link was being formed with the Central Argentine line, but he could assure the shareholders that there was not the slightest antagonism between the respective boards of the Rosario and the Central Argentine. ("Hear, hear.")

The resolution for the adoption of the report and accounts was then put to the vote and carried unanimously.

The Chairman further moved:—"That the sum of 35,000*l.* be retransferred from the reserve fund account to the net revenue account, and that a balance dividend of 6 per cent. free of income-tax be sanctioned on the ordinary stock of the company entitled to participate and payable on and after the 31st instant to those proprietors whose names appeared on the register at the closing of the transfer books."

Mr. H. Brassey, M.P., seconded the resolution, which was also carried unanimously.

On the motion of the Chairman seconded by Mr. Morrison, Mr. A Olgilvie was re-elected a director of the company; and on the proposition of Chairman, seconded by Mr. Van Tromp, Mr. Russell Shaw was also reappointed to a seat at the board.

Mr. Shaw, in returning thanks for his re-election, assured the meeting that the charges made against him by Mr. Krell were entirely without foundation. He observed that whilst he was on the board of the Rosario Railway Company he would never give his consent to any extension towards Tucuman. He pointed out that the area of the Argentine Republic was equal to that of India, and that owing to the enormous number of emigrants to the Republic every year, there was no need to be afraid of any falling off in traffic, which would always be sufficient to pay a dividend of 12 per cent. ("Hear, hear.")

POLO.

TOWN v. CAMP.

This match, played at Flores on the B. A. P. C. ground on Saturday last, was most interesting. Though the town were the stronger team, on account of having had more practice and always playing the same ponies, still the Camp made a bold effort, and it was only in the first twenty minutes that they were thoroughly beaten, and this owing to their captain being so badly mounted that he was practically out of the game, during which time the Town scored two goals.

We cannot pass over the skill of Mr Robson, who justly deserves his sobriquet, "Le Démon de Polo." The way in which he handles his pony, and the science he brings to bear in directing the ball, entitle him to be classed among the "créme de la créme" of no matter what country:

Mr Preston's back stroke on the near side of his pony is one among his many strong points.

Mr Wilson, straightforward or backhanded, is sure, sharp and effective.

Mr. Miller's straightforward swoops on to the ball are well directed and well nigh irresistible; and last but not least of the Town team comes Mr. Bowen, whose careful plodding and well-judged dribbling does so much for his side.

For the Camp, Mr King showed the most science, playing with great dash and judgment.

Mr Ravenscroft played with great pluck and determination, and did his side a lot of good.

Mr Thompson plays up heartily, his cheery voice the while ever cheering on his side. He hits strong and directs his aims.

Mr McClymont shows great promise. He rides well, uses either hand, and only lacks practice to bring him up to the highest pitch.

Mr. Russel's first performance in public was exceedingly creditable, alway on the ball and working hard, before long he will be a valuable acquisition to any team.

The match may be briefly described as follows:—

In the first twenty minutes the Town had the best of it, scoring two goals to nothing, one struck by Mr. Robson, the other by Mr Preston.

In the second twenty the ball was kept rolling all the time, the Camp scoring one goal by good and brilliant play, struck by Mr King; the Town scored two goals, both got by Mr Robson.

The last twenty was a perfect scamper the whole time, the ball travelling from one end of the ground to the other; the play was splendid on both sides, neither side had any advantage, each one scoring a goal, the one for the Town was secured by Mr. Preston, the one for the Camp by Mr. Russel.

Judging from the large attendance of ladies the Polo ground at Flores seems to be becoming more and more popular, as the play continues to improve. As several new clubs have been started, a series of matches may be anticipated, which will tend to increase the interest and emulate the players to practice. Individual practice is required by many, without which no player can ever hope to become anything near good. The Revd. Spilsbury umpired for the Camp, Mr Wanklin for the Town.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

14th August.

Mr. Lagos, the editor and proprietor of the Capital, is also the President of the Society for the Protection of Poor Children, a very excellent society, as far as its professed object goes, but in reality of very little practical utility, as long as there are no special laws that will enable charitable and philanthropic institutions to separate young boys and girls, particularly the latter, from vicious parents. Mr. Lagos has published an article lately in his paper, something in the style of those published in the Pall-Mall Gazette, and, as president of the above-named society, he has been obliged to descend into the slums of the suburbs, and dive into the inner life of their inhabitants, and he finds the same vices here as in London. The fact is that human nature, in misery and poverty is the same everywhere. There is certainly less excuse for vice in these new countries than in the squalid densely-populated cities of the Old World, in which hunger plays such an important part. It is all very well for people who never want for a sufficiency of food to hold up their hands in holy horror at a mother selling her child to sin, but hunger leaves very little room for the contemplation or the exercise of virtues. The tempter, the purchaser of human flesh in such cases, is the real culprit and in the future distribution of rewards and punishments we might, perhaps, with all reverence, imagine with Laertes, at the grave of poor Ophelia, and change in a word or two

> "A ministering angel the poor sinner may be
> When thou liest howling."

That the same immorality exists in these countries, indicates a much more perverse phase of human nature. The mother here can give hunger as an excuse for selling her children, and yet the custom is so common as to have become for the lower orders a thing of course.

There does nor exist here the horrible grossness, the criminality of vice, as that denounced by the Pall-Mall Gazette. The mother usually guards her treasure until she arrives at the proper age, generally from 14 to 15, and then makes the best bargain she can, unless the impatient damsel runs away with a lover, when the distracted mother rushes wildly to the police-office for redress for the crime of, not seduction of her daughter, but robbing her of her price. The difference of this class of immorality in London and in South America is, that there it is hunger and misery that corrupts the lower class, and here it is the absence of any consciousnees of the value of female chastity. And how can it be otherwise? In London, at least, there are thousands of good men and women, who, with true Christian abnegation, mix with the poor and teach them virtues, and show them the evils of vice, and undoubtedly save a vast number of young girls, who, in return, teach their children the same lessons. Here the inner life of the proletarian class is absolutely uncared for. There is not any means adopted to teach them. No voice in their "ranchos" is ever heard instilling, in kindly tones, the beauties and advantages of female virtue. The mother is incapable of teaching her daughter what she has never learnt herself, and the result is, that chastity with them possesses no sensible meaning, an unprofitable commodity in fact.

Mr. Largo tells us that the great difficulty that society meets with is the refusal of parents to entrust their children to them, even when assured they will be clothed and educated. Apart from the half-savage instinct of desiring to have their cubs around them, even in rags and ignorance, there is never wanting a "comadre," who whispers in their suspicious ears that society only wants to get hold of the children to sell them.

I see no alternative save that of the establishment of National asyiums, placed under the charge of the Societies for the Protection of "Niños desvalidos" and a law giving power to these societies to take possession of children of both sexes, inthe case of the parents bringing them up to vice and immorality!

A fear is springing up that the grim spectre, cholera, may have something to say in the electioneering campaign of next summer. In high official circles apprehension does not appear to have entered as yet; but it should not be forgotten that the cholera is spreading in Spain, has now invaded Marseilles, and might very easily be transferred to the River Plate, where many circumstances concert, particularly in the Capital, to insure it a cordial reception. We ought to be warned in time; it is probable a hot summer awaits us, and the Wandering Jew may at the present time be packing his trunk with the intention of visiting us.

The Portuguese are proverbial for their long string of names. None of them who claim any pretension to blue blood, and they have mighty little red, but tack to their parental names those of half a score of ancestors, supposed or real. I would commend them, however, to the name of the Japanese Minister of the Interior, who has lately signed a treaty of amity between his country and the German Empire. He rejoices in the following names:—Min Gieo Min Maha Zoya Thin Jun Myathit Myozah Atwin Woon Min, which are certainly more euphoneous than Portuguese or Brazilian patronymics. Probably some of your subscribers might favor us with a translation. I should like to know, by the bye, what name his wife goes by—Mrs Zaya Myozah, for instance, would be sweetly poetical.

I notice you are stumped in a quotation, my dear STANDARD. It is no use; you are not poetical nor musical; you are only horridly practical. A line from Tommy Moore now and then is the height of your ambition. Why don't you call on "W. P." to help you out of the scrape? You say you forget what follows

> "Amo, amas, I love a lass."

Now, say candidly that you never knew the rest. Since college days the lines have remained in my memory. The first verse is as follows:—

> "Amo, amas, I love a lass,
> As a cedar tall and slender;
> Sweet cowslips grace is her nominative case,
> And she's of the feminine gender.
> Horum corum, sunt divorum,
> Hareum scareum divo;
> Rag tag merry derry, periwig and handband;
> Hic hæc hoc genetivo."

I think that is the way it goes, and probably by ransacking my brains I might recollect the other two verses of this once celebrated but now forgotten college song and chorus.

I think we are all too hard on adulterations. Just fancy the hundreds of thousands of industrious people who turn a dishonest penny by them, and support their families in comfort. I shudder to think of the necessary starvation of perhaps millions of industrious men and women were it possible, by the enforcement of some Draconian law, to oblige them suddenly to become honest! After all, we get accustomed to adulterations. I myself have got to prefer chicory in my coffee. Like Belisarius, we have all become so saturated with poisons that they not only have no effect on us, but have become palatable. Nux vomita no longer injures our hardened stomachs. I must have swallowed a large amount of prussic acid in my daily after-dinner nipper of Noyau, which originally was made from almonds, but now from Brazilian nuts and prussic acid. I am none the worse for the substitution of turpentine for juniper berries in all our gin, and it is awful to think of the consumption of Cocculus Indus by the Germans in the beer their countrymen send them from Fatherland, and yet I notice they are as fat and hearty as if their John barleycorn were genuine. I am sorry I have spoken ill of our city vineyards.

W. P.

Another terribly sudden death on Tuesday was that of a man cook in a Calle Piedad livery stable. He dropped dead in a second, just like the poor lottery man. Sudden deaths are very frequent in this city when the wind is at a certain point.

MR. THICKE'S LECTURE.

(Concluded.)

There is a very pretty fashion in the United States, which really dates back as far as the old Roman Palaces. It is called the "Corner." It is a sort of improvised tent in one corner of a large room. It serves to break up the immensity of the chamber, favors the advancement of innocent flirtations, protects the ladies from the draught and altogether makes the home look more sociable. In this country where the apartments are so large and lofty it is a fashion which might well be introduced. From some North American newspapers I have been enabled to glean a few facts and ideas concerning these corners which are interesting. It appears that a frame-work is built of boards with a platform like a miniature stage with a canopy rising from it which can be made of very light stuff such as Bamboo. This is covered with green baize, a carpet, or richer materials, as one pleases. Over the top which is just high enough to escape peoples heads, is hung a baldachin of velvet or brocade or Turkish stuffs and seats are placed with footstools inside this little room as it were. Here may be a long couch covered with a shawl or rich antimaccassars. This little corner, occupied by two pretty women or a young man and woman, forms the back ground of an attractive picture, and would give to some forlorn, long and not easily furnished rooms a very snug effect.

Turkish pillow cases now much used for chair backs have a very pretty effect made into cushions. The colors in Turkish embroidery are so beautiful that the commonest is pretty and gives a look of refinement to a room. They are simply tied in the middle and hung over the back of a seat. A cheap and pretty "corner" could be of chintz and would be a charming thing in a bedroom. A folding screen of plush with panels of Illuminations breaks up the severe outline of a square room, and what are called milking stools covered with the same material add considerably to the picturesqueness of an apartment.

It is the Japanese who have given us many ideas as to the beauty of a harmonious irregularity as to furnishing.

Take one of their cabinets, most irregular as to shape, made of wood inlaid with pearl and ivory, the beaks of birds being put in coral; at the top there will be a flight of storks and every little drawer will have a different design inlaid with colors. And yet it is a piece of furniture of which one never tires.

But work brackets in walnut, mahogany, or oak if properly designed and carefully distributed in unoccupied corners tend to add to the prettiness of a room but they are only too often made the vehicle for displaying a useless or inartistic vase of doubtful origin. Plain deal brackets covered with Prussian blue plush to carry a gilt carriage clock or weather-glass always look well, and generally harmonize with the neighbouring decorations and ornaments, if placed in an appropriate position.

Even with the best of furniture in the shape of tables, chairs, settees, sideboards, and however beautiful they may be, a great deal depends upon the disposition of them in a room to give artistic effect, and what is of more importance is to see that they are properly placed in the position assigned to them. Nothing is more irritating to what is termed a straight eye than to see chairs and tables out of the centre between windows or recesses. Again pictures hung at unequal distances and with an inch inclination to the ceiling or floor out of its proper level are equally annoying. These are little points that even the ordinary housewife, without a single artistic sentiment in her composition, could be easily taught to attend to. Her task can easily be guided by her lord and master in the selection of her adornments in the way of antimaccassars chair-backs, cloths, and draperies, if he will only take the trouble to instruct her and she will be amiable enough to adopt his suggestions with good grace.

The selection of pictures to be hung in the various apartments of an abode is not one to be treated in an off hand manner. Oil paintings, as a rule, are not such as should be allowed to put in an appearance in an ordinary English Drawing room. They should be reserved for Halls, Staircases and Dining-rooms which are places where the more prosaic and practical portions of life are passed, whilst the Drawing-room, which should be hung with light engravings and water-color drawings, is the apartment where we indulge in recreation and the more poetic or etherial part of our existence.

A man or woman's taste is often judged by the pictures which he or she allows to be hung on her walls, and the rooms to which she consigns them.

I deprecate the idea of having pictures in Bedrooms, but I should not object to any amount, in reason, of illuminated mottoes or verses with an instructive or useful tendency in all rooms.

Every person who has the least sensibility or imagination derives a certain pleasure from pictures. Yet a man of the highest and finest intellect might, unless he had formed his taste by study, consider the worst daub a miracle of Art.

Mannerism and plagiarism should not be permitted in furnishing a house, but mannerism is sometimes pardonable and in some cases even agreeable when the manner through vicious is natural.

In conclusion, Ladies and Gentlemen, it is possible that many of you present to-night are enjoying those few golden years of middle life which if you are wealthy enough constitute the very prime of life. Wisdom has come, experience has been bought, taste has been cultivated and you have educated yourself to the uttermost in the great school of daily life. You know your World thoroughly, whatever that World may be, and you know how to enjoy every gift and every advantage which Providence has betowed upon you. Why not turn your attention to art and endeavor to the best of your ability to inculcate in the minds of those near and dear to you in your own immediate family circles the advantages and pleasures to be derived from the study of all that is artistic and beautiful. The study of Art costs but little and the advantages of it are incalculable. Not only has it a refining influence on the mind and character, but it is a source of real and unalloyed pleasure. Why then should we not cultivate Art in our own homes? It is a subject I would earnestly ask you to consider well and deliberately. If there are any here to-night who are not mere amateurs in art they will bear me out in saying that application and study go far more towards making men and women healthy, wealthy and wise than any other occupation. Excuse of want of time is no excuse; there is a time for everything. I will but repeat what Benjamin Franklin said "Dost thou love life? then do not squander time for that is the staff life is made off."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The last thing going to bed at night, the first thing getting up in the morning is—Pellegrini. Some people are so completely off their heads on this subject that they attribute the splendid rain of yesterday to the corrective power of nature on the failure of this loan business. Of one thing there can be no manner of doubt, namely that the mild soft rain is worth more to the country than the £1,800,000, promised us by our dear friends the London bankers.

To-night the great Scab law meeting will be held at the Rural Society's rooms, 35 Peru, at 7 o'clock p.m. We say to all our friends in a voice as loud as the pampero wind—GO.

On 6th prox. the new Bolsa is to be opened officially. Many of our young readers think that in the interim there is plenty of time to give another ball. We offer no opinion.

We have to correct a mistatement in regard to the electric light installation at La Plata. The present premises being found inadequate and unsuitable for the new steam engines, which will give an aggregate of power larger than that of any establishment in the country, the water works of B. Ayres only excepted,—it has been decided to erect special premises upon one of the reserve squares in the centre of the city. It is the cost of this new building, including a chimney 80 feet high, that is estimated at twenty thousand nats. The engines and boilers are furnished by the well know firm of Davey Paxman & Co., who have supplied all the motive power for the electric light at the Health and Inventions exhibitions, London. The new edifice wil form the centre for all the lighting at La Plata both for public and private lights; the latter, according to contract, will be in operation next year.

We had the pleasure of inspecting a patent corn grinding mill for making flour (by hand power) recently imported from England by Messrs. Crovetto and Co of 263 Calle Cangallo. This extremely handy little machine turns out the flour in four different forms simultaneously into apartitioned drawer: the different classes, are fine flour, seconds, thirds, and pollard; while the bran is passed out into a receptacle on the floor. We should strongly recommend the three 'Cs,' viz, connoiseurs, campmen and colonists to inspect this little engine, which is well worthy of their notice. The price is reasonable, and its extreme simplicity and strength should also argue in favour of its adoption in this country. It can also be used for grinding barley, pearl-barley, rye, maize and oats, etc., without in anyway injuring its efficiency for the flour process. This is arranged by the introduction of a simple slide which guides the barely, etc., etc., from the dressing drum.

We are pleased to inform our readers that, as the s.s. Buffon does not leave until Saturday, Miss Ethel Arden, our old favourite, has an opportunity of taking her benefit before the departure of the Company. This event should have taken place earlier in the season had it not been for this lady's severe illness. She is now wholly recovered, and we trust the English-speaking population will not forget the good work this charming artiste has done amongst us us for three seasons, and give her what she deserves—a crammed house.

Jupiter Pluvius was uproariously welcomed yesterday after his long absence. Even city folk were sick of the long spell of fine weather. As for the estancieros, they went about all day with radiant faces, whistling "And doth not a down pour like this make amends for all the long months we've been freezing away?" The Boca and Barracas people looked rather squeamish. Since the floods last year, every stiff shower of rain frightens our Barracas subscribers.

The cholera news was bad again yesterday. The terrified fugitives from Marseilles have carried the plague to the Southern Alps. Our Health authorities had better look out for vessels from Italy. Next month the amalgamated steam companies intend to run a weekly steamer between Genoa and Buenos Aires.

There was a sad scene at the drawing of the Capital Lottery on Tuesday. A 'billetero' of 55 years of age, who was looking on, suddenly fell dead. His wife was standing beside him, with a baby in her arms, and when the terrible truth burst on her her screams and sobs were heartrending. It almost required force to tear her from the corpse.

The Garcia-Nazar legal bout is not over yet, nor likely to be over for some time yet. The latest is Dr. Blancas's report (as long as a charity sermon) on the defunct old woman's wits, or want of them. We have not read this report, as she left us nothing in her will, and we don't care a fig whether she was mad or sane, or a little of both, like most of the world.

Poor Dan! The Fates are against him. Did you ever see such a wretched day for a popular actor's benefit?

The Prensa has let another very ugly cat out of the bag. Last year Congress voted 400.000 nats for temporary lazarettos to keep the cholera out. The money has been spent to the last cent; but where is the faintest sign of a temporary lazaretto to be seen anywhere. Are these very serious revelations never to stop? No wonder the Government is hard up. In other countries the things that turn up here every day would create a burst of public indignation, and the responsibility would be put on the right back.

The Congressional 'paseantes' to La Plata on Tuesday had all sore bones yesterday. The drive in carriages from Ensenada to La Plata churned them up tremendously (We did that drive once, and shall never forget it). It was raining cats and dogs at 11½ p.m when they reached the Central Station.

The Rosario estancieros were all on the verge of ruin when the rain came down. We hear that the losses in that quarter are the most severe for many years.

EDITOR'S TABLE

There was a Solomon Eagle feeling in pious-old-lady circles yesterday, owing to the unaccountable disappearance of a relic while it was being handed round in San Roque church on Tuesday for the faithful to kiss. The consternation was great, when a lady, sharper than than the rest, notified the clergyman that the relic, set in a valuable jewel, had disappeared. The relic is as old as the San Francisco convent itself, and the ladies say that its loss will inevitably entail unutterable woe on the city. This is a straight tip for the gold bulls on the Bolsa.

The cremation experiment at Martin Garcia only failed in so far as the time taken (3 hours) was too long, and the consumption of coal excessive. A big dog and two empty gin bottles were burned up in a very perfect manner.

The papers say that the 'Limpieza Service' is going to the dogs, owing to the prolonged 'sumario' about its 'Administrador,' Mr Toby, or Topknot, or Tobal, or something like that. "When the cat's away, the mice can play," and all the Limpieza mice are playing the dickens with the 'servicio." What are the odds, as long as the Lord Mayor is happy. He wasn't happy yesterday; as, we are sorry to hear, he was sick.

Another slice off the unfortunate public loaf! Message sent to Congress yesterday to give Mr Villanueva, C.E., a present of 15,000 Nats, and Mr Noailles, C.E., 5,000. They both deserve it, but the country cannot afford it.

"What's that you have in your hand?" asked Mrs Gimlet of her husband, as he brought home a roll of manuscript. "Brains, madam," replied Mr Gimlet, pompously. "Are you surprised at that fact?" "Not in the least," "I knew you didn't carry them in your head."

At the ball in the Mercedes Town Hall the other night there was a Waterloo-like "Sauve qui peut" owing to a sudden noise and a panic idea that the building was falling, a catastrophe that has been expected every day since the precious building was erected, and which is sure to occur some day. The noise that caused the "stampede" was made by a lad who had been locked out in the cold by some others, for a lark, and kept kicking and battering at the door, to get back to the precincts of the cheerful dance.

Mr Amadeo, the distinguished Lottery Inspector, butters up the Mendoza Lottery in his report of the last drawing. The 'empresa' is only anxious to make fortunes for its customers.

Here's a superb chance for any man who happens to have the three Cs—cash, credit and capacity. Negrotto's quondam big school on the Flores Road is to be let, and it would make a splendid summer hotel or boarding-house for well-to-do bachelors. There are immense rooms in the house, suitable for giving balls and concerts to lady friends; the grounds are vast, and a Tennis Lawn could easily be made. There is a splendid swimming bath, large orchard, and all kinds of conveniences for summer life. Whoever starts the concern will either make a fortune, or burst up sky-high in half no time.

There are 14,000 different kinds of Roses in the world, of which 5,000 belong to Europe. There are no roses in the whole world to beat those of Herat and Caballito.

We always look to the Prensa for news about the navy, just as we look in the Republica (the Porteño Morning Post) for marriages, elopements, divorces, and all the other fiddle-faddle of High Life. Well, the first-named most discreet colleague, who told us the other day of the truly miserable plight of one of the National gunboats, now informs the world that another, the Parana, is in an equally sinking condition, and that thousands and hundreds of thousands are about to spent on repairs. This word repairs, in every navy in the world, corresponds to what Captain Wragge, that profound moral agriculturist, so neatly calls "the unfathomable head of 'Sundries.'" What a multitude of sins and shiners this word can be made to cover.

The Paris papers relate the following veritable touch of that Nature, which makes the whole world kin:—"The other day a sweet-faced girl of six presented herself at the Bureau of the Mont de Piete in the Rue Bondy, and handing something to the oficial with childlike signs of inward struggling, said, "You must lend me a great deal of money on my doll; mother is very ill." The pawnbroker for once was unequal to the situation. He gave the child 5 francs, handed her back her doll and called for the next customer."

The search for missing opera-cloaks, bracelets, fans, top-coats, Gibus hats and all the spoils of the Bolsa ball was continued yesterday with varying success. Those who have succeeded in getting back their property find it much the worse for wear.

A morning colleague asserts that Colonel Bosch will retire from the command of the city police, and Mr. Marcos Paz resume his old post. We think this highly unlikely.

There was an amusing civil marriage scene in a Montevidean Juzgado the other day. The Justice of Peace had just buckled a young couple, and the bridegroom wished at once to go home; but the bride, a handsome Spanish girl, refused to budge an inch except in the direction of the parish church, to have the religious ceremony performed, as she refused peremptorily to consider herself a wife until the clergyman made her one. The bridegroom did all he could to persuade her to dispense with the religious marriage; but he had finally to give way, amid the jeers of the bystanders.

The newest fashionable fad on the tapis is to ride to Palermo Park on Sunday instead of going in a carriage; and half the respectable papas and big brothers in town are now engaged in looking for saddle horses for the belles of society. We hope there will be no accidents. The only women at home on horseback are Englishwomen, Hungarians, and the King of Dahomey's Amazons.

Bravo! A Salta editor has peremptorily refused to fight a duel with a reporter of an opposition paper. Quite right. Reporters think an insufferable lot of themselves; and it would be utterly "infra dig" for a "redactor", either to shoot or allow himself to be shot at by one of them.

The new Tucuman water works are the proper thing of the kind. Cheap as dirt. No brickwork or botheration of any kind; but three leagues of iron piping laid in the earth from the mountains to the city, and the thing is done.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests too often fatal diseases Diphtheria Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charming Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan-5th 1880. To J. T. Davernport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne or the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

We never recollect a moment of greater doubt, greater indecision in market affairs than at present. Those who still put faith in the Pellegrini loan business are afraid to operate, owing to the rough experiences of last month, when trusting to the loan, the Bono General, and the Ministerial statements, they parted with their gold. On the other hand those who regard the Pellegrini loan business as completely squashed and not the slightest chance of its revival until next year, fear to buy any more gold, regarding the present price at the advanced period of the season as high. Thus the market stands, and the business of the gold market is reduced to the ups and downs of the 'picholeadores' and the legitimate purchases for trade and commerce. But the rich outsiders are steadily converting into gold as occasion offers, either they buy gold, as one wealthy Argentine has done, and keep it, or they buy properties to make sure of present values. The position was never more difficult than now; we offer no opinion whatever, but merely report the market. There is a certain want of confidence which can only be removed by the Government making the most sweeping economies and reducing the Budget to 30 millions. But even were the Budget so reduced R. Plate produce is at such a very low ebb in Europe, and the season has proved so very unfavorable to estancieros and farmers that the exchange market for the end of the year already trembles, and we may have yet to meet difficulties that we know not of.

Gold opened for cash at 142.50, sold down to 142, and closed at 142.20; the cash sales amounting to $74,150. For the end of the month 540,000 sold, opening at 142.50 and closing at 142; and for September 390,000 sold, starting at 141, dropping to 140.50, and closing at 141.50. For August 22nd 30,000 sold at 142. Total sales, $1,034,150.

Cedulas were slightly dealt in; Series F 27,600 cash sold at 80-79¾, and for to-morrow 42,000 at 79¾. In other stocks nothing done.

The meeting of the Directors of the Provincial Bank to-day possessed more than ordinary importance, due to the fact that brokers were aware the question for discussion is the reply to the Minister on the crochety subject of an increased emission. The prevalent opinion is that the Provincial Bank not only will not ask of the Government any increase to its emission, but it is opposed to the Government granting same to the National Bank. But in the market it is so well known that the emission of the National Bank will be fixed at the figure specified in its charter, namely double its capital, that the matter is no longer discussed. There is a certain whisper in the market that the discussion of the curso forzoso edict in Congress will come on shortly, and that the opinion of Congress on this subject is adverse to the Provincial Bank, but it is unwise to anticipate anything. We may state it for a fact that much of the present market uncertainty springs from the long delay of Congress to finally despatch the question.

Mr. Mallmann, head of the leading firm of Mallmann and Co., and who arrived out with his family in the French mail, came ashore last night and was warmly welcomed by his numerous friends to-day.

Dr. Pacheco is at last getting into the right groove about his finances, and in a few days will present to Congress a new project for the emission of ten millions, 8 per cent., Treasury Bonds, with which he will completely wipe out the floating debt in this market, and which is at present represented by bills maturing every 90 days. The floating debt due in London is secured on the Government shares in the Central Argentine Railway, and does not mature for 2 years. We have no doubt that the Minister will most easily succeed in launching his new 8 per cent. Treasury Bills at par; many are of opinion that instead of 10 he should make this new home loan for 20 millions, and thus hold ample means at his command to conclude his public works. The market thoroughly approves of this project of the Minister, and, we suppose, it will meet the same favor from Congress. With this loan the Government will be in ample funds to meet everything, and not require the extraneous aid of the Pellegrini loan business.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

Gold—

The long looked for rain has at last come, and according to the telegrams from the various partidos is most general; if not succeeded by frost or snow, it will do a world of good, and a week's weather like the present would be worth all the paper money in circulation, to our country interests.

The death of Mr L. M. Solé was announced, and spread a gloom on 'Change. Deceased, in former years was a prominent merchant of this market; of late he has been in declining health; his funeral took place this evening from Almagro at 4 p.m.

It rained hard this afternoon, nevertheless there was a large attendance of merchants on 'Change. In the liquidation room, however, there was very little done, and possibly not 20,000 nats sold up to 5 o'clock, prices ruled so, so, for end of month, 142½ sellers, and for September 141½. For cash something bought at 143, and thus the market closed.

The coal market rules very dull, large supplies and no sales of importance.

Exchange very little doing, the rates on France and England are the same as yesterday, on Rio something done at 13.100.

The Bolsa was rife with every description of Pelligrini rumour, but none had the least color of foundation, so we give them not.

At the Plaza Once the following business reported:—

72 waggons with produce arrived.

The arrivals were:—
395 doz. sheepskins
1,230 doz. corderitos
30 lb nutria
420 cow hides
50 nonatos
32 becerros
34 potro hides
10 bordalesas tallow
14 pipes tallow
53 @ hair
320 bags flour
836 bags wheat
1,985 bags maize
408 bags peanut
290 bags bran
54 bags turnip
43 bags alpiste
105 bales hay
2,000 bricks
1 lot horns
and other produce.

Owing to the rain this morning very little business done.

Hair, corderitos and sheepskins flat; maize and wheat firm.

The sales were—
Sheepskins—
Per doz. at 19, 14, 11 rls. lb
Matadero, 23½
Total, 200 doz.
Wheat—Per fan. rivers, at 100
Total, 150 fanegas.
Maize—Per fanegas morocho in grain at 42 and 38
Total, 200 fanegas.
Hay—30 bales at $12 m/n per ton.

The following are the latest Stock Exchange advices from London:—

"The stoppage of the Munster Bank, of which details were given in the Daily News of this morning, will not, it is understood, have any important influence here; beyond, perhaps, leading to some efflux of coin from this side—a consideration, by the way, which tended to steady the money rates a little to-day. Some mitigation of the crisis will probably be made through the banks here interested in Irish connections. The bank in question has no note issue.

"There has been great excitement—amounting in fact to a panic—to-day in the Stock Exchange, where up to the early part of the afternoon almost uniform buoyancy was remarked; but the publication of a telegram reporting an advance of the Russians in force upon Zulficar changed the whole tone of things, and caused quite a panic in some inflated stocks; towards the close of the day there was no real recovery. Some idea of the artificial character of the reaction in prices, and of the consequently serious condition of the markets, will be gathered from the movements shown in prices, not the least important being the fall of as much as 1⅜ to 1 7/16 per cent in Consols and New and Reduced; while in home railways the fall finally ranges from ½ to 1½ o/o in some stocks, and from 3 to 4 o/o in others, and this after a fair advance had been recorded this morning. Similarly in the foreign department the fall was severe in Egyptian and Russian securities, and to a lesser extent in the other international issues, the movement extending to Suez Canal shares, in which there is a drop of 2¼. But, as on former occasions when foreign politics have appeared cloudy, American securities moved up beyond the advanced prices of the morning, but were soon checked in their course by considerations more reasonable than those that have before now had weight, namely, that an European war, should it occur, would benefit American securities. It might for a time, but the interests of important nations are so closely interwoven that the benefits would soon be far exceeded by the injury to trade. It is quite possible that the upset of to-day in the Stock Exchange is only a scare, such as has been before experienced, but it has undoubtedly been aggravated by the smallness of the bear account open, and by the fact that the market was quite unprepared for unfavorable news, which found operators bulls to a considerable extent in particular stocks."

Our newsy colleague, La Campaña, publishes the following interesting advices from the rural departments, under date August 17th:—

Gualeguay—Cattle are suffering greatly from the drought and "garrapatas". The losses in many districts are 50 o/o.

About 4,000 stall-fed 'novillos' have been sold at 12½ m/n. Buyer, M Larreira.

Concordia—Advices from Victoria are bad. Robberies are being carried on on a large scale. Cattle are thin, owing to the want of grass and the "garrapatas".

Here everything is flourishing.

Azul—The camps here still hold their own, although many losses are reported. Cows are also thin.

About 1,300 cows have been sold 'al corte' at 160 $/%.

Pergamino—The camps are very dry; grass is scarce; animals thin. 'Capones', nevertheless, are in good condition. Weather is very cold. We have had frost several times.

San Nicolas—Great mortality in cattle in Ramayo and Arrecifes camps. Cows are very thin; grass is scarce.

About 6,000 'capones' in good condition have been sold at 52 $/%.

Junin—The camps are covered with frost. Cold is intense.

A sale of 200 fine 'novillos' is reported at 16 m/n.

Guamini—Cattle are weak and thin. The weather is fine to-day.

Rojas—A sale of 600 head of cattle is reported at 165 $/%.

Chivilcoy—The "paricion" has suffered greatly from the severe weather. Cattle are strong, nevertheless.

Carhue—We have experienced a severe snow-storm, but the weather promises to be fine. Losses in cattle are considerable. Horses are miserable.

If a drought should succeed this storm, we should lose thousands of animals.

According to the same newsy camp organ, two rich 'hacendados' committed suicide lately at Victoria in consequence of the great losses they suffered in cattle, and impending ruin.

Estancieros in Entre Rios complain of the great havoc caused by the irrepressible 'garrapatas'.

Messrs. Green & Johnson, the well-known shipbrokers, give the following in their important shipping circular of the fortnight:—

Principal exports since 30th July to 15th August, 1885:—
12,000 salted ox and cow hides
6,556 salted horse hides
27,401 dry ox and cow hides
306 dry horse hides
1,852 pipes tallow
77 bales hair
771 bales wool
984 bales sheepskins
86,341 bags maize
6,207 bags wheat
1,924 bags flour
3,302 bags linseed

Imports.

Prices—

Salt—
Last sales 8½ rls $ gold per fanega in port, and 9½ rls. $ gold in rivers. Prices nominal. Good stock.

Coal—
Cardiff—$12-13 m/n outside and in Riachuelo. Good stock. Little demand.
House coal—Prices quoted per cargo $10 to 10½ m/n in Riachuelo. Good stock.
Nut coal—Prices quoted per cargo $13-14 m/n in Riachuelo. Good stock.

Lumber—
Canada White Pine—$65-70. Second class $55 to 58. Good demand.
Spruce—$43-46 in Boca. Good stock. Little demand.
Pitch Pine—Last sales $66 to 72 in Riachuelo. No stock. Good demand.

General Remarks—

Steamers—
The market is almost at a stand-still; the only article of export now is maize and the disposable tonnage being in excess of the demand rates are not likely to improve. The rates now current are 22½ francs in the river Parana and fcs.15 here for maize per 1,000 kilos to the U.K. or Continent.

Sailing vessels—
There has been some more enquiry for vessels during the last fortnight, principally to load maize here and in the river Parana at fs.17½ and 22 respectively per ton of 1,000 kos. to Channel f.o.

WE BELIEVE THE CAUSE OF THE wonderful success of our Murray & Lanman's, Florida Water may be found in the fact that the principal aim in its preparation has always been to give the simple natural perfume of flours, without any chemical addition whatever, and to avoid, by all means, the great error of making a heavy sickly, sweet perfume.
